SUBJECT NO. 353.

Appointment of a Commission to enquire into the existing state of Government service.

Mr. H. V. Rangasamy, Hassan taluk.

Summary of discussion.—A Commission consisting of officials and non-officials may kindly be appointed to enquire into the following matters and recommend such changes as it may deem fit:—

(1) The cause of the present discontent and the consequent deterioration in the service.

(2) The methods of recruitment, the system of training and probation.

(3) The enormous expenditure incurred in respect of travelling allowances, batta, etc.

Mr. K. H. Ramiah supported the proposition adding that there was great discontent in the service. There was also great and growing disaffection between Brahmins and non-Brahmins. The tendency should be checked.

Mr. C. Narasimiah.—More encouragement should be given to the District Office establishment. There are practically no graduates in those offices, worth mentioning.

Mr. M. K. Krishnamurthi Rao.—Government service has become a sort of monopoly, and the state of the service is becoming inefficient. When a man enters the service, he feels sure of getting on whatever may be the nature of the work done by him and however bad or unsatisfactory it may be. The laxity in this respect is deplorable.

Mr. H. Krishnasastri.—Supersessions should not be allowed in the higher grades. In the lower service there should be proper emoluments to avoid corruption.
